

I oppose changing rules to allow more media consolidation. We need more diverse ownership that is highly responsive to local issues, concerns and priorities both in content and in editorial positions. I urge you to retain current rules on June 2nd.